- Digital Presence, Listing, and Operational Efficiency penalties do NOT apply
- School Partnership bonus and operational budget accountability remain in effect
- Penalty-free month designed for learning systems and processes

3.2 Phase 2: Post-NSS (Full Employment)

3.2.1 Compensation Structure (Upon Successful NSS Transition)

Monthly Fixed Compensation: ₵2,000 (Two Thousand Ghana Cedis)

Breakdown:

- Base Salary: ₵1,700
- Operational Budget: ₵300 (Autonomous spending for business operations)

Total Fixed Monthly: ₵2,000

3.2.2 Performance Commission

Commission Rate: 3% of Net Akoma Robotics Revenue

Net Revenue Definition:

- Total course fees collected from all Akoma Robotics programs
- MINUS facilitator payments and commissions
- MINUS direct transportation costs (venue to venue)
- EQUALS Net Revenue subject to commission calculation

Commission Calculation Example:

- Total course fees collected: ₵50,000
- Facilitator payments: ₵20,000
- Transportation costs: ₵5,000
- Net Revenue: ₵25,000
- Employee Commission (3%): ₵750

Commission Payment:

- Calculated monthly based on previous month's completed courses
- Paid by 15th of following month via mobile money/bank transfer
- Minimum performance threshold: Maintain 2+ active school partnerships
- If school partnerships drop below 2, commission temporarily suspended until restored

3.2.3 Operational Excellence Bonus

Bonus Amount: ₵100 per month (if both conditions met)

Earned if BOTH of the following are achieved:

- Digital Presence Target: 12+ quality posts monthly across platforms (minimum 3 weekly)
- Operational Efficiency: 95%+ equipment accountability + zero damage/loss + on-time course delivery

Conditions:

- Bonus applies every month targets are met
- If either condition missed, bonus not earned that month
- No penalty applied in Phase 2 (unlike Phase 1)
- Cumulative bonus across both conditions if both met

3.2.4 Sales Commissions (Phase 2 - Continued)

- Pricing and fee structures
- Operational procedures and processes
- Curriculum materials and teaching methodologies
- Financial information and revenue data
- Business strategies and expansion plans

7.2 Non-Disclosure Obligation

The Employee agrees to:

- Maintain strict confidentiality of all business information
- NOT disclose information to competitors or outside parties without written authorization
- NOT use confidential information for personal business advantage
- Protect physical and digital access to confidential materials
- Return all confidential materials upon employment termination

7.3 Intellectual Property Rights

The Employee acknowledges that all materials, processes, and intellectual property created or developed during employment remain the exclusive property of the Employer:

- School contacts and relationships developed
- Parent communication templates
- Curriculum content and teaching materials
- Process improvements and operational systems
- Marketing content and promotional materials
- Student data and performance records

7.4 Social Media Accounts

All social media accounts created for business purposes (Facebook, Instagram, TikTok, LinkedIn, YouTube, WhatsApp Business) are created, maintained, and owned by Employer. Upon employment termination, all account access, passwords, and ownership are transferred to Employer.

8. NON-COMPETE AND PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

8.1 Non-Compete Clause (During Employment)

During the term of employment, the Employee agrees NOT to:

- Engage in any competing robotics education business
- Offer alternative STEM or educational services to schools where Employee has business relationships
- Solicit Akoma Robotics facilitators or staff for competing ventures
- Use business processes or curriculum for personal competitive advantage

8.2 Non-Compete Clause (Post-Employment)

For a period of six (6) months following termination of employment, the Employee agrees NOT to:

- Start or work for a competing robotics education business in Ghana
- Solicit or contact schools that were Akoma Robotics clients during Employee's tenure
- Recruit or hire Akoma Robotics facilitators for competing services
- Use curriculum, processes, or methodologies learned to start competing business

Geographic Scope: Non-compete applies to Ghana

Exception: Employee may work for non-competing businesses (retail, general management, accounts, IT, etc.) without restriction

8.3 Professional Conduct Standards

The Employee is expected to maintain professional standards including:

- Respectful communication with all stakeholders (schools, parents, facilitators, suppliers)
- Professional appearance appropriate for school visits and business meetings
- Punctual attendance and reliability
- Honest and transparent reporting
- Adherence to company policies and procedures
- No engagement in theft, fraud, or dishonest behavior
- No inappropriate conduct affecting business reputation

Violations of professional conduct may result in disciplinary action up to termination.

9. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

9.1 Termination by Employer for Cause (Immediate)

The Employer may terminate employment immediately without notice for:

Gross Misconduct:

- Theft or fraud involving company funds or equipment
- Willful damage to equipment exceeding ₵1,000 through negligence
- Violent behavior or threats toward colleagues or clients
- Gross insubordination or refusal to follow direct instructions

Serious Breaches:

- Disclosure of confidential business information to third parties

- Attempt to resolve through informal discussion

Step 2: Formal Grievance

- If unresolved, submit written grievance to Operational Lead
- Include: Nature of grievance, relevant dates, desired resolution
- Employer responds within 5 business days

Step 3: Mediation

- If still unresolved, engage neutral third party for mediation
- Parties attempt good-faith resolution

Step 4: Final Resolution

- If mediation unsuccessful, decision made by business ownership
- Escalation to external mediator or legal counsel if necessary

11.2 Confidentiality of Grievances

All grievance discussions are confidential. Employer will not retaliate against Employee for raising legitimate concerns.

12. GENERAL PROVISIONS

12.1 At-Will Employment

This employment is at-will, meaning either party may terminate at any time for any lawful reason with appropriate notice as specified in Section 9. At-will status does not override severance or termination notice requirements outlined herein.

12.2 Entire Agreement

This Employment Contract constitutes the entire agreement between Employer and Employee regarding terms of employment and supersedes all prior discussions, agreements, or offers. No modification or amendment is effective unless made in writing and signed by both parties.

12.3 Governing Law

This Employment Contract is governed by the laws of the Republic of Ghana and is subject to all applicable Ghana Labour Act provisions. Any disputes arising from this contract are subject to the jurisdiction of Ghana courts.

12.4 Severability

If any provision of this contract is found to be invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such provision is severed, and the remainder of the contract remains in full force and effect.

12.5 Amendment Process

This contract may be amended only through written agreement signed by both Employee and Strategic Lead/Operational Lead. Amendments should be dated and referenced as "Amendment #[number]" with the original contract date.

12.6 No Waiver

Failure of Employer to enforce any provision of this contract does not constitute waiver of that provision or right to enforce it in the future. Selective enforcement of provisions does not waive other provisions.

12.7 Document Integration

This Employment Contract includes and incorporates the following documents as binding addenda:

- Performance Dashboard/Tracking System (to be provided by Employer)
- School Contact Log Template (to be provided by Employer)
- Equipment Accountability Protocol Documentation
- Weekly Expense Log Template
- Monthly Performance Report Template

12.8 Successors and Assigns

This contract binds and benefits the Employee and Employer and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Employee may not assign rights or obligations without Employer written consent. Employer may assign this contract to any successor entity purchasing the business.

13. SPECIAL PROVISIONS - TRANSITION AND DEVELOPMENT

13.1 Skills Development and Training

During NSS Phase, Employee will have access to:

- Sales and marketing training from Operational Lead
- Equipment operation and troubleshooting training

- School engagement and presentation skills coaching
- Business management mentoring from Strategic Lead
- Online professional development courses (budget provided)

Development Investment: Employer commits to developing Employee's capabilities for long-term success.

13.2 NSS-to-Full-Time Transition Support

Upon successful NSS completion and transition to Phase 2:

- Formal transition meeting discussing Phase 2 expectations
- Updated job description reflecting permanent manager role
- Benefits package orientation (SSNIT, leave, etc.)
- Performance metrics review and goal setting for Year 1
- Compensation discussion and confirmation

13.3 Career Path and Advancement Opportunities

If Employee demonstrates exceptional performance in Phase 2 (Year 1+):

- Potential for base salary increase review annually
- Equity stake consideration in business
- Promotion to Senior Operations Manager or Director of Education Programs
- Expansion into business strategy and planning
- Mentoring and training responsibilities for future employees

Advancement is merit-based and contingent on sustained high performance and professional development.

13.4 Probationary Period Confirmation

First 30 days (Month 1) of employment serve as probationary period where:

- Either party may terminate without cause with 24 hours notice
- Performance expectations are clearly communicated and reinforced
- Employee receives intensive onboarding and support
- "Penalty-free" provision applies to performance bonuses
- Critical 30-day school acquisition target evaluated
